Marriage Resource Center Marriage Saving Techniques

We are Reducing Divorce, Let Pastors Meyers & Sullivan Show You How!

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – September 4, 2007, Dearborn, MI. - The Marriage Resource Center of Wayne County invites mayors, judges and clergy to a special meeting to hear how they can improve marriages and eliminate divorce in their community and congregation.

The Marriage Resource Center is presenting Pastors Jeff Meyers, Pastor of Christ Lutheran Church and Leroy Sullivan, Pastor of Bread of Life Church both from Kansas City to share how they have successfully eliminated divorce and co-habitation in their congregations.

Come for a free continental breakfast and a dynamic presentation on September 14, 2007 at the Burton Manor located at 27777 Schoolcraft Rd in Livonia from 10am-12noon.

Learn from two men who have used their Marriage Savers training to impact their community and families in a positive and healthy way.

The community and faith-based organizations are invited to be apart of making a difference within Wayne County.

To RSVP or for more information please contact, Pam, Marriage Resource Center of Wayne County, (313) 278-4400.

Your participation helps to support the training and workshops offered by the Marriage Resource Center to the community. Our mission is to improve the quality of relationships and family life, for adults and their children.

The vision of the Marriage Resource Center is for communities filled with satisfying, healthy, life-long marriages, and for the happy families these marriages produce.
