The Marriage Resource Receives Ceremonial Embrace

Dearborn, MI

The Marriage Resource Center of Wayne County is pleased to announce that they have been honored by the American Clergy Leadership Conference for their work in promoting marriage and family. The Marriage Resource Center will be a candidate to receive an award for their invaluable community service at the 6th Annual Greater Detroit True Family Values Award Banquet. The Marriage Resource Center has been nominated by Reverend David Kasbow, American Clergy Leadership Conference Co-Chairman.

“In this time of growth for the Marriage Resource Center, we are very proud to be recognized for the work we are doing on behalf of Wayne County and Michigan,” says Executive Director, Julie Bock. The event will be held on February 9th, 2008 at Charles H. Ellis Banquet and Conference Center at 6 pm. The keynote speaker will be Congressman Walter Fauntroy.

The Marriage Resource Center is a community-based, not-for-profit organization that was established in 2004. The Marriage Resource Center offers many resources that include workshops, seminars, and training for singles, those preparing to marry, newly married, and long married couples as well as new parents. The Marriage Resource Center strives to serve as an organizing body within the community, benefitting marriages and family, to reduce the divorce rate throughout Wayne County.
