

Suggested Media Interview Questions

- 1) What is the Marriage Resource Center?
- 2) What is your organization trying to accomplish?
- 3) How is the Marriage Resource Center funded?
- 4) Why does Wayne County need a Marriage Resource Center?
- 5) Where do you see Wayne County in the next five years in terms of marriage and healthy relationships?
- 6) What types of services does the Marriage Resource Center provide?
- 7) What is the difference between marriage education and therapy or marriage counseling?
- 8) What types of people come to your organization for education or assistance?
- 9) Can you provide some real life examples where marriage education has made a difference in peoples' lives?
- 10) If a couple on the brink of divorce were to come into your office for guidance, how would you help them?
- 11) How does the current economic downturn affect families and children in the area?
- 12) Tell us about the Family and Relationships Community Survey that is currently underway.
- 13) How do you plan to reach all 43 communities in Wayne County with your mission?
- 14) What was your most rewarding or memorable experience while working at the Marriage Resource Center?